VINTAGE POP-UP FAIRY TALES

Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs

Some stories are worth telling over and over again. After all, who doesn't like listening to the tale of Little Red Riding Hood being saved by the huntsman, of Snow White defeating the evil scheming queen, or of the golden fish punishing anyone who gets too greedy? Nowadays, we should still remind ourselves that bad intentions will be punished and smart people will win over fools, but also that taking risks might not pay off. These popular characters from children's tales now come alive in three-dimensional books by Vojtěch Kubašta, a famous Czech illustrator. His unique interactive takes on classic stories have brought up generations of children all over the world.

Once upon a time – a short phrase that appears at the beginning of every fairy tale. A mysterious phrase that takes all readers by the hand and leads them gently along paths walked by princes, princesses and dragons, through enchanted forests, and to houses on chicken legs. A phrase that promises a beautiful story high on imagination and with a happy ending. Once Upon a Time is a more than eloquent name for this collection of fairy tales from all over the world. Would you like to meet an Indian princess, take to the skies on a flying carpet, or outwit a horned devil who is as crafty as a fox? Then this wonderful book, with its abundance of illustrations by world-famous artist Vojtěch Kubašta, is the very thing for you! Just tune in to the magical narrative and remember to come back down to earth at the end. Once these stories take hold of you, you won't want them to let you go!

ILLUSTRATED AND WRITTEN BY VOJTĚCH KUBAŠTA

Every boy worth his salt needs a real adventure – and Tip and Top treat these words as gospel. Otherwise they'd be sitting at home, with no knowledge of what it's like to build a car or a plane with your own hands. They'd never have flown to the Moon, sailed the seas or helped out on a farm. You don't believe us? Then go and join them – you'll soon realize we were telling the truth! These thrilling tales with Vojtěch Kubašta's beautiful movable illustrations will take your dad straight back to his childhood, and you'll love them too!

BOOK PARAMETERS:

Size 233×190 mm, 5 spreads, board book

ILLUSTRATED BY VOJTĚCH KUBAŠTA

WRITTEN BY ŠTĚPÁNKA SEKANINOVÁ

SOLD: German

Once upon a time there was a cricket, every inch a musician, who played for the summer and celebrated the sun. Reckless and merry, he gave no thought to the future. But when winter came, the cricket was in real trouble. The ants worked hard all summer. Will they help him now? This board book with die-cut holes contains charming pictures by Vojtěch Kubašta and delightful words based on themes from the poetry of J. Z. Novák. Generations of children and their parents grew up with this book.

Some things look the exact opposite of what they actually are. The truth is hidden under the surface. The fun book about animals you're holding in your hands is just one such thing. Is the ostrich pulling the donkey's tail, or is something else going on entirely? Are the monkeys climbing a tree – trunk into the clouds, or is there actually no tree? What's it like to be in a magic zoo? Beautifully illustrated in an original format, with simple text and developments that make us smile – that's Hide-and-Seek at the Zoo.
