Little May & the Magic Umbrella

Little May

& the Magic Umbrella

Suddenly the umbrella started descending, and little May could not see the city anymore, only a large forest. Before she knew it, the umbrella set little May gently on the ground and she saw a lovely cottage standing on its own in a large garden in the middle of a clearing. It was the very same cottage she knew from her favourite fairy-tale. She knocked on the door and waited what would happen next. "Come in!" said someone inside. Little May opened the door and went in ...

When they came back, Granny and Mr. Hunter were already waiting for them by a set table. They ate a sponge cake together; little May was talking about her home and others told her about the fairy-tale land. May was having a great time, but suddenly started feeling homesick. She realized it will be morning soon and her parents would be worried, if she wasn't home.

and everybody goodbye. How happy knowing her favourite fairy-tale are sound and safe. She promised to come again soon. After all, she has her fairy-tale land, hasn't she?

Little May & the Magic Umbrella

Written by Alžběta Niebauerová

Illustrated by Linh Dao & Rudolf Lukeš

For her birthday, little May has received a magic umbrella, which transports her into the land of her favourite fairy tale, Little Red Riding Hood. There she meets not only her favourite character, but also Grandma, the hunter, and even the wolf. How does the story end? Readers who join little May on her journey will have lots of fun with the interactive pop-ups that run through the book. These come together with delightful illustrations and a charming story in a unique work that would grace any bookshelf.
