

IN THE WOOD

with Little Red Riding Hood

Birch

Logs

Jay

Doe and fawn

Rowan

Spruce

Anthill

Fern

Oak

Let's be ever so quiet – the little girl is just entering the mixed forest. Join her as she looks at all the things that grow, run and jump in it.

Fir

Squirrel

Hedgehog

Vixen with cubs

Lizard

Once upon a time ... but wait a moment! We all know that one day Red Riding Hood walks through a deep wood to visit Granny. And that it's her first time alone, without Mum.

Nightingale

Black arch moth

Fireflies

Family of bears

Owl

Errant tree-stump

Wildcat

Bat

Beaver

There's no point in repeating what has happened to Granny. Now the bloated wolf is waiting in the poor dear's house. And what about Red Riding Hood? She realizes that it has got darker. The little girl must hurry on her way. Being in a deep, dark wood is no fun!

Fallen twigs crack under Red Riding Hood's feet ... and she is surrounded by strange creatures. Study the picture and find out which.

IN THE WOOD

with Little Red Riding Hood

.....

Illustrated by Alexandra Májová

