Hurry up, school is waiting!
The bell is ringing eight o'clock,
and Henry is still on his way.
Step on it, lad! No one wants to be the last of the last.

*Set the clock to quarter to eight
and then to eight o'clock.*

Afternoon is play-time.
Children large and small run to the playground, where they chase their bouncy balls. "Catch that ball, Henry! Otherwise it might bounce away!"

*Three o'clock, four o'clock. All these times are in the afternoon.
Can you set them on the clock?*
