Tap, tap, tap, go Franny Fox's feet. She is going to the forest to look for bilberries. But where will they be? "Maybe next to that white flower," Franny thinks.

Tra-la-laa! Franny Fox has put the red strawberry in her basket. She is about to go on when she sees a huge leaf. What is underneath it?

Franny Fox is looking for bilberries in the forest. In her basket she has a red strawberry, a yellow dandelion and a green four-leaf clover. But what's that under the conifer?

Franny Fox

Looks for Bilberries

Strawberries are red, dandelions are yellow, a four-leaf clover is green... But where are the blue bilberries? Franny looks all over, but she can't find them. Why not help her look? Not only will you have fun, along with Franny you will learn the primary colours.
