The watering took him longer than he thought.
It made him really hungry.

“I’ll bake an apple pie and eat it with vanilla ice cream. Yummy.”

In the morning, Ernest couldn't believe his eyes.

"My goodness! There's a sea in my garden!"

Giant manta rays circled the whole garden eight times.

“How curious mantas are! I’ll show them some bubbles.”

Teddy and the Great Flood

Apples! How Teddy loves them! In the garden, he has filled a whole basket with them. And he has already decided what he is going to do with them at home. Teddy is so wrapped up in his thoughts of apples that he hasn't noticed the water leaking from the garden hose. He forgot to turn it off! He wakes up the next morning to a terrible sight - in the night, his garden has changed out of all recognition! Charming illustrations, an unexpected twist, a gently-told story which unfolds with humour - all this you will find in this original work by prize-winning illustrator Katarína Macurová.
