... are also rectangles!

Honeycomb is a hexagon.

Can you tell what else is a hexagon?

tiles

kite

jewellery box lid

side of a nut

snowflake

spider web

... are also hexagons!

Do you always get all the different shapes muddled up? Don't worry, you are not alone. We are going to learn them together. Circles look like the sun, triangles look like traffic signs. Can you tell the difference between squares and rectangles, though? Not to mention hexagons, they can be really tricky! Let's get all these shapes finally right. Got it? Go for it!
