

Three Bears

Vojtěch Kubašta

Three Bears

Vojtěch Kubašta

V Kubašta

A little girl Martha lived in a tall house. She was a fair-haired girl who liked to play all day long in a green field outside the small town where she lived. But she was not allowed to go into the deep forest. What if she got lost in it? Her mother was worried. But the thing you fear the most is what usually happens. One day, Martha was craving raspberries, and before you could say Jack Robinson, she was in the woods wandering all alone between the trees. Luckily, she spotted a cute little cottage. Someone there will certainly tell her how to keep out of trouble.

Meanwhile, the bears returned from the walk. They sat down at the table and wanted to eat; they were so hungry! But what is this? "Someone's been eating my porridge!" roared Daddy bear. "Mine too," said Mummy bear. "Someone's been eating my porridge - and it's all gone!" said Mikey sadly. "Let's get to the bottom of this!" Daddy slammed his fist on the table and began searching for the offender. Mummy helped him and Mikey encouraged them. The bears searched and searched, turned the house upside down, but found no one.

Have fun
with pop-up
TALES

Three Bears

In a cottage near a large forest lives a golden-haired little girl named Martha. The forest is deep and mysterious and one day, Martha could not resist. She sets out on her own and wanders in the woods. She gets lost and comes across a house where three bears live. What did she find there? What does the bear family have to say? And does Martha ever get home all right? Fall in love with this famous story, this time in a unique design by the famous Czech artist Vojtěch Kubašta.

www.albatrosmedia.eu

ISBN +EAN

© Designed by B4U Publishing, 2020
member of Albatros Media Group
Author: Vojtěch Kubašta
Illustrations © Vojtěch Kubašta – heirs, 2020
All rights reserved.