FROZEN

Disney
FROZEN

ANNA AND ELSA WERE SISTERS
who lived happily with their parents in a castle in the Kingdom of Arendelle. They loved to play and make mischief, and Elsa especially loved using her magical powers to turn their bedroom into an ice rink or a winter wonderland full of snow. They'd giggle and build snowmen, until one day when Elsa's magic accidentally struck Anna, harming her.
Elsa was very scared for her younger sister, so their parents took Anna to the mountain trolls for help. Thankfully, the trolls saved her, but Elsa had to give up her icy magic, as fun as it had been for the sisters. As the years went by,
THE GIRLS GREW UP AND BECAME YOUNG WOMEN.
But then, in a tragic twist of fate, their parents died,
leaving the sisters all alone.

To chase Anna and her friends away from the Ice Castle for their own safety, Elsa created a giant snow monster. As they fled, they fell down the mountain. FORTUNATELY, THEY LANDED IN A SOFT PILLOW OF SNOW. Anna was feeling sicker by the minute, though, so they went to see the magic trolls for help.

As Anna got sicker and colder, Hans showed his true colors—he had never loved her; he wanted only to rule Arendelle. JUST AS HANS WAS ABOUT TO STRIKE ELSA WITH HIS SWORD, THOUGH, ANNA STOOD UP TO HIM AND WAS INSTANTLY TURNED INTO AN ICE SCULPTURE.

It seemed Anna would never awaken from her frozen spell. But when Elsa embraced the icy statue, her sister magically came back to life. ALL ALONG, THE ONE TRUE LOVE THAT WAS NEEDED FOR ANNA TO OVERCOME THE SPELL. . . WAS THE LOVE OF HER SISTER. The people of Arendelle now knew Hans for who he truly was—a villain. AT LAST, JOY AND LAUGHTER RETURNED TO THE KINGDOM UNDER THE RULE OF THE WISE AND LOVING QUEEN ELSA.

The logo features the word "Disney" in its signature script above the word "FROZEN" in a large, stylized, icy font. The letters are surrounded by intricate ice patterns and a large, glowing snowflake. A trail of ice magic descends from the logo towards Elsa's hand.
