1. Proper training

Hi there! I'm Racing Jack. I like driving fast cars, and to finish first. But taking hairpin bends and overtaking competitors isn't easy. So I train every day, working on my strength and reflexes. I bounce on a trampoline like a gymnast and build up my muscles like a wrestler. In winter, I whoosh down hills on skis... See that slope? I'm the one in the blue ski suit.

What is a hairpin bend?

This is where the driver makes a sharp turn left or right. If he doesn't control the turn, the car will leave the track and crash.

3. Lightning fast

I've always liked speed. When I was little, I enjoyed bike races and sledging down steep hills. My friends were forever calling: 'Jack! Wait for us!' I was lightning fast. Once I was old enough to get my driving licence, I tried out a lot of vehicles – motorcycles, go-karts, cars, even trucks. Race trucks leave clouds of dust in their wake. But the king of all speedsters is the Formula One car. Quicker than the birds, it's quite a ride!

What is a driving licence?

Before an adult can drive a car, they must take lessons to learn the rules of the road and how to drive safely. Then they must take a test. If they pass, they get a driving licence.

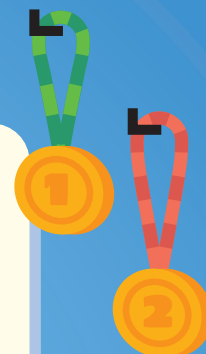

5. Who comes first?

The finish line is right ahead. I squeeze every last drop from my engine. Oof! I see the flag waving at me... it's all over! I drive the car over to James the mechanic, who fixes what has broken during the race. He also gives the car a good wash and puts oil in its engine, making it ready for the next race. I hurry to the podium. Spectators cheer, applaud and take photos of me. It's like a dream! Racing Jack is the winner!

What is a podium?

The winner stands at the centre of the podium on the highest step, above the runner-up and the third-placed driver, whose step is the lowest.
