Oh no, it looks very similar here,
but even this time we can't tell you what season it is. Stick the stickers on the page and find out.

Again, it's unclear what time of year it is, but here's a hint. It's cooler, the wind is blowing, the trees have colored leaves, and the animals are changing their fur. Do you know the season?

Oh no, it looks very similar here.
What season could it be? Stick the stickers on the page and find out.

Now that we know how nature works,
let's put the stickers in the right places.
