The girl liked to wear a red dress and a red hat,
so everyone called her Little Red Riding Hood.
Once upon a time there lived a mother and her little girl.

Red Riding Hood said goodbye to Mum and went on her way. This was not just any old path. It led through thick forest, where the strangest creatures live. Mum hoped that the little girl would not talk to anyone.

What's that shadow in the bushes? Is someone watching Red Riding Hood?

Red Riding Hood said goodbye to Mum and went on her way. This was not just any old path. It led through thick forest, where the strangest creatures live. Mum hoped that the little girl would not talk to anyone.

What's that shadow in the bushes? Is someone watching Red Riding Hood?

So they are! A big bad wolf! Red Riding Hood told him all about her sick grandmother and how to get to her cottage. Guess what the wolf did! He ran straight there!

To find out what happened after the wolf ran into the cottage, turn the wheel.

So they are! A big bad wolf! Red Riding Hood told him all about her sick grandmother and how to get to her cottage. Guess what the wolf did! He ran straight there!

To find out what happened after the wolf ran into the cottage, turn the wheel.

He freed Granny and the little girl. Then, he filled the wolf's belly with stones and sewed it up. The wolf awoke very thirsty and went to the well. His heavy belly pulled him in. Splash!

So, what happened next? Having gobbled up Granny, the wolf gobbled up Red Riding Hood. Hearing snoring from the cottage, a passing hunter went inside. He knew what the matter was straight away.

Alone in the forest for the first time, Little Red Riding Hood is on her way to see Granny. But hot on her heels is a wolf! Turn the magic wheel to find out what happens next. What the little girl does is up to you. This timeless fairy tale in an unconventional telling is a source of fun, tension and adventure. The interactive element will unlock children's curiosity, playfulness and desire to discover, as well as developing their fine motor skills. Spin the wheel and enter the fairy tale!
