A collection of colorful, stylized illustrations of marine life and diving equipment, including fish, coral, a diver, a treasure chest, and a submarine, all set against a light blue background. The illustrations are arranged in a scattered pattern, with some elements like the diver and treasure chest being larger and more central, while others like the fish and coral are smaller and more peripheral. The style is simple and cartoonish, with bold outlines and a limited color palette.

From left to right: a snail in a circular frame, a yellow jellyfish, a blue starfish, a blue ray with a long tail, a green crab, a purple crab, and a squid.
